

Military ID CARDS

To qualify for a Military ID Card a person must:

- Be a current member of the military service or a dependent of a current member
- Be a retired military service member (with 20 years of qualifying service either active or reserve status) or a dependent of a retired service member
- Be 100% medically retired from military service or a dependent of a medically retired service member
- Be a qualifying DOD civilian employee
- Be 100% medically Disabled American Veteran (DAV) or a dependent of a 100% Disabled American Veteran

To receive an ID card you will be required to have two forms of ID and qualifying supporting documents. To receive a dependent ID card you will also need supporting documents.

- Forms of ID: Drivers License, Military ID, Birth Certificate, SSN Card (cannot be expired)
- Supporting Documents: DD 214 and /or NGB 22, Retirement letter/Discharge order, VA Disability rating (if disabled) Medicare Card
- Supporting Documents for dependent ID card: marriage certificate, Birth certificate, SSN card, Drivers license, Medicare Card
- If sponsor can't accompany their dependent to the ID Card Service center a DD Form 1172 must be completed by the sponsor prior to the dependent's appointment. This form needs to be printed from a DEERS/RAPIDS station.
