

MILITARY ID CARDS & RECORDS

To qualify for a Military ID Card a person must:

- Be a current member of the military service or a dependent of a current member
- Be a retired military service member (with 20 years of qualifying service either active or reserve status) or a dependent of a retired service member
- Be 100% medically retired from military service or a dependent of a medically retired service member
- Be a qualifying DOD civilian employee
- Be 100% medically Disabled American Veteran (DAV) or a dependent of a 100% Disabled American Veteran

To receive an ID card, you will be required to have two forms of ID and qualifying supporting documents.

- Forms of ID: Driver's License, Military ID, Birth Certificate, SSN Card (originals only, no copies).
- Supporting Documents: DD 214 and /or NGB 22, Retirement letter/Discharge order, VA Disability rating (if disabled) Medicare Card

To receive a dependent ID card, you will also need supporting documents. If the sponsor is unable to accompany their dependent to the ID Card Service center a DD Form 1172 must be completed by the sponsor prior to the dependent's appointment. This form needs to be printed from a DEERS/RAPIDS station.

- Supporting Documents for dependent ID card: marriage certificate, Birth certificate, SSN card, Driver's license, Medicare Card (originals only, no copies).

Notes: Should you get a new card before the eligibility dates it will expire on your birthday.

- Under age 60 or turning 60: Retiree, Spouse and Dependents are eligible 30 days before birthday.
- Turning age 65: Retiree is eligible on the 1st day of their birth month. Spouse is eligible on their birthday.
- When turning 65 and covered under Medicare A & B to retain TRICARE fpr Life (TFL) you will need your Medicare card as proof and a new ID card.
- If you live outside the areas on the list below or need to check where to get an ID the website can be of assistance. It is recommended to use your zip code to find a location nearest you. Website for ID card locations: <https://idco.dmdc.osd.mil/idco/locator> at ID Card Office Online \(osd.mil\)

On-Line ID Card Renewal (IDCO): This could be an advantage for those not located near a DEERS/Rapids ID location. Website and a DS Login to set up a "my auth" account to access: <https://www.cac.mil/Next-Generation-Uniformed-Services-ID-Card/Renewing-Online>
