For those deployed after 28 Jan 2008: Early Retirement Benefits Tracking. You can start receiving retired pay sooner than age 60. The 2008 NDAA authorized Reserve Component personnel to receive retired pay 3 months earlier than age 60 for each 90 days of service performed during a fiscal year in support of operations such as OEF/OIF. In 2013, Congress expanded the criteria to count activations for national emergencies. The 2015 NDAA removed the 90-day requirement in the same fiscal year, starting with activations in FY15.

It can get complicated and retirees need to be aware and should consult an attorney familiar with SBP and its requirements. Should a Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) spouse of a retiree pass away DFAS now requires a DD form 2656-6.
